 - The person(s) against whom the grievance/complaint is made should have the opportunity and be given a reasonable time to put their side of the story before resolution is attempted.

Procedures

The following is a four-level process:

1. The member attempts to resolve the complaint as close to the source as possible. (This level is quite informal and verbal and may have occurred prior to notification to Secretary.)
2. If the matter is not resolved:
 - The member notifies the Secretary (in writing or otherwise) as to the substance of the grievance/complaint and states the remedy sought who notifies the President immediately.
 - Discussion is then held between the member and any other relevant party, chaired by the President or his/her delegate.
 - This level will usually be informal but either party may request written statements and agreements.
 - This level should not exceed one week.
3. If the matter is not resolved:
 - The President must take the grievance/complaint in writing to the Committee of Management together with any additional information thought relevant.

- The Committee of Management may resolve to seek the services of an external mediator. (Reference may be made to U3A Network in appointing an experienced mediator.)
 - The Committee of Management will either:
 - provide a written response to the member
 - or arrange for the parties to meet with the external mediator
 - This level will not exceed two weeks.
4. If the matter is not resolved the member will be advised of his/her rights to pursue the matter with external authorities if they so wish.
