

Policy – Tutors and Developing Classes at Whittlesea U3A

Introduction

The term Tutor/Leader applies to anyone who manages a group in any activity listed as a Course at Whittlesea U3A. Tutor/Leaders may offer tuition, lead or facilitate participants in a group activity, coordinate a 'self-help' group, organise excursions, social events or presenters of one-off information sessions. Tutor/Leaders are the life blood of Whittlesea U3A and we value and support them.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

1. Document how a member can become a tutor at Whittlesea U3A Inc.
2. Explain the processes of developing a class/activity within Whittlesea U3A
3. Explain the tutor fee structure which will commence from 2024 and apply to all tutors from this date.

Policy

1. It is the role of the course coordinator to develop, advertise and maintain programs for Whittlesea U3A.
2. This is completed in partnership with the president, the membership coordinator and the venue coordinator
3. Other volunteers who make this process possible include the office staff and the tutor coordinator.
4. Courses offered at Whittlesea U3A are approved by the Course Coordinator, on behalf of the Committee of Management.
5. It is essential that all courses offered at Whittlesea U3A are inclusive and open to all members, and not restricted, other than by normal course considerations such as prerequisites and maximum course numbers.
6. It is generally accepted that a tutor or leader of a group is a member of Whittlesea U3A and must abide by the Terms and Conditions as described in the Membership Terms and Conditions Policy. Special arrangements can be made with non members including individuals or organisation who may listed at tutor/leader of a group.

Procedures

1. Members can become tutors if they have an idea, skill, or hobby which they would like to share
2. Tutors can offer full-year courses or short courses. The activity can run weekly, fortnightly, monthly or one off (e.g. an event, talk or excursions).
3. Tutoring is the sharing of knowledge and experience in a relaxed environment, free from competition, with minimal committee administration. There are no tests or exams.
4. All tutors run their sessions around travel plans and family commitments.
5. Tutors are invited to continue in their role yearly however they can stop at any time. Some pre notice of the cancellation of classes would be appreciated.
6. The course coordinator will notify all tutors towards the end of term 3 of each year inviting them to continue the following year.
7. As part of the class program it is recommended for a tutor to have an assistant – referred to as Tutor 2. This person may, if needed, run the class in the tutor's absence and assist the tutor in any capacity required. Some classes may have more than one assistant depending on the size of the group. These people may not be recognized as part of the tutor category.

8. If a member wishes to become a tutor they need to discuss the process – their idea, focus and availability with the course coordinator. This is usually done face to face at a mutually convenient time.
9. The aspects that will be discussed include:
 - a. Name of class/activity
 - b. Description of the class/activity including:
 - c. Proposed location (subject to availability),
 - d. Start and Finish Date,
 - e. Duration of the class/activity,
 - f. Any costs involved
 - g. Maximum number of Whittlesea U3A members included in class/activity
 - h. General description of the class/activity
10. As part of their role a tutor/leader is not expected to incur any cost other than travel and general administration. If there is any costing incurred by a tutor/leader which they would like to have reimbursed it must be in line with the following:
 - a. The tutor needs to provide the course coordinator – in writing – with any purchase request, whether it is for materials or for training, prior to the purchase being made. This request will be presented to the Committee of Management for approval. No purchase is automatically approved regardless of cost.
 - b. If payment for the goods or training is to be made directly by the Whittlesea U3A Treasurer prior, an official invoice needs to be provided. This invoice needs to include the business information, including the ABN, as well as a description of the item/s to be purchased or the training to be provided. Non consumable items will remain the property of Whittlesea U3A.
 - c. If payment for the goods or training is made after purchase (once approval has been given) a receipt needs to be provided to the treasurer. Depending on the cost of the reimbursement receipts may vary.
11. The following table refers to the name given to tutors and their responsibilities:

Code	Description	Amount
Tutor 1	Tutor with classes that run during the year. This can be made up of more than one class/activity.	NO MEMBERSHIP COST
Tutor 2	Cost of membership will be left up to the discretion of the course coordinator. In most cases Tutor 2 will be regarded as Full Members.	FULL MEMBER
